- Participant's identification number.
- Stickers with the participant's number, 3 for the helmet and 1 for the bicycle.

- Bags with the participant's identification number (4). One for the cycling equipment (Bike Bag), another for the running equipment (run bag), another one for the street wear (Street wear bag), and another for Special Refreshment.

- Identification wrist band (1).
- A chip and a band for wearing on the ankle.

INSCRIPTION AND REGISTRATION OF ATHLETES

All registered participants must present their ID (Personal Identification Document) or Passport when they register for the event. They must also present the licence emitted by their corresponding National Triathlon Federation, valid for the year of the event. (Those triathletes whose Federation does not issue them with a membership card, must present a certificate issued by their Federation stating that said athlete is Federated).

In the case of not having a membership card or certificate the athlete will have to pay for a Single Event Permit / One Day Insurance in cash, when they do the registration on line.

ANTI-DOPING CONTROL

Anti-doping controls will be effected on participants that have finished in positions eligible for money prizes. Likewise, anti-doping controls could be effected by raffle on any other participant.

Registration implies consent by the triathletes to subject themselves to such anti-doping controls.

SECURITY AND MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

Restricted areas will be controlled by security guards from the organization and will only be accessible upon presentation of the participant's wrist band or the corresponding accreditation.

Medical services provided by the organization along the course are authorized to withdraw any participant for medical reasons.

Any emergency vehicle that must use the bicycle course for circulation will be so allowed, indicating its position with luminous signals and sirens. In all cases the vehicle will have priority over the triathletes, who must give way to the vehicle.
